Horses have been returned to Saturday afternoon before a crowd of several hundred.

In one of the first miles, done against time, the state record was lowered to 1:17.4.

A variety of other races were pulled off later by the four cars entered, only two cars in a race except in the last event which was a handicap. In the first race, the horses ran about 1:20 to the mile—fast, to say the least, as it was entirely safe to take the turns, and faster than most people would care to do it.

Friday's Shower. At about 5 o'clock Friday afternoon the sky was visited by a severe thunder shower which lasted until nearly midnight with intermissions. During portions of the shower the lightning was brilliant and the lightning sharp and incessant. In some places there was hail and in all places the rain at times fell in torrents.

The lightning struck the barn on the farm of Robert Schenck on Pike's Hill, Norway, early in the evening and it was burned with its contents, including seven cows, one bull and one horse. Three cows, one bull and one horse with a few calves were saved.

Mrs. Victoria N. Hammond died at the home of her sister, Mrs. Dudley in Awarren, Alton, on the 14th of August. She was 70 years old. Are You Feeling Fine and Dandy?
IF NOT—WHY NOT? When you get up in the morning with a dark brown taste in your mouth, your tongue furled, and you feel headache or nauseated, there must be a reason. You have been overeating of rich and indigestible foods, or too much tea, coffee, or beer, or you have been chevying your food property, or eating when over-tired, and unable to digest. If so, reform your habits, but don't try to do it through the day feeling blue and grumpy; don't get a bottle of "L.F."

Sip It with the Kitchen Scissors.

The Kitchen scissors is a good-sized, sharp, well-bladed pair of shears for efficient work. They should be kept in a convenient place, either in the cabinet drawer or hanging on the wall. A hook is sufficient to hold them. They should not be allowed to slip off the nail, dulling their points in the fall, and doing damage to the floor and floor covering. As good a place as any at the end of the kitchen cabinet. The scissors should be kept at a convenient height, but far enough from the edge so that they do not protrude.

The ordinary uses for the scissors, such as cutting shelf paper, oilcloth, cord, clippings for the recipe book or card catalogue, stems of flowers, etc., are well known. A hundred others will present themselves.

How often would the busy, tired housekeeper make food more appetizing by a sprinkling of chopped parsley or by a sprig of mint? The scissors will do this. The housewife who drinks hair tonic will never live to see his hair wavv' over his grave.

Favorite Stones of the Past.
Rings of the Middle Ages had two quoins and emeralds as favorite stones and in that age of chivalry it was but natural that the coat of arms on rings should become the fashion. In the Renaissance, diamonds were used for the first time. The cuttings were very rough, the tools of jewelers being crude, and for softer stones, more diamonds were used. The emerald was used to make the rings of miniature perfume boxes.

No Cold Floors

THE big outer casing of the Moncrief takes all cold air promptly from your floors. The extra size casings are a special feature of the Moncrief. Its generous current of warm air heats every far corner.
